CONTINUED BUSINESS

Dean Keckeisen insisted that Greg Weinfurter get compensated for his postage and printing costs. Greg indicated he was not worried about it but did reflect that postage from time to time does add up and he would tally up and submit a request for payment before the end of the year.

Greg Weinfurter shared with the District that the DNR were conducting fish surveying which consisted of netting and shocking. Greg indicated that boats were witnessed on the lake conducting this survey and that results would take up to a year to obtain.

Dave Smith brought up about getting the lake dredge by the Corp of Engineers or to at least get things moving on our intent of wanting the lake dredged. Dave Smith suggested to contact the Lake District members to draft a petition to favor the idea of dredging Thunder Lake. Motion made by Dean Keckeisen seconded by Tom Nelson. Motion carried. Greg Weinfurter indicated he would start gathering information to do this.

Tom Nelson brought up a more immediate need of dredging or weed pulling about giving everyone the opportunity to split weed removal 50/50 with the Lake District. After some discussion of budget and cost, Greg Weinfurter suggested for Tom to gather some pricing to share at the next meeting on what it would cost the average home owner.

Election for Treasurer: A motion was made by Dean Keckeisen and seconded by Tom Nelson to have Ingrid Weinfurter serve a three year treasurers term. Motion carried.

Greg Weinfurter made a motion to have the next meeting July 29, 2023 at 12 noon Three Lakes American Legion seconded by Dean Keckeison. Motion carried.
