

Thank You Table Sponsors

The 12th Annual Oneida County Stewardship Awards Banquet was made possible with table sponsorships from:

- Bear Lake Protection & Rehabilitation District
- Big Bearskin Lake Association
- Crescent Lake Association
- Joan and Robb Jensen
- Lumberjack RC&D Inc.
- Oneida County Lakes & Rivers Association
- Oneida County & Water Conservation Department
- Pelican Lake Association Inc.
- Shishebogama/Gunlock Lakes Association
- Sorgel Fine Arts Gallery & Gifts-Three Lakes
- Three Lakes Waterfront Association
- Two Sisters Lake Property Owners Association

*Joan and Robb
Jensen*

Thank you Holiday Acres for your spectacular service and to our many donors!

Welcome to the 12th Annual Oneida County Stewardship Awards Banquet

In recognition of Invasive Species Superstars, Local Lake Groups, Clean Boats Clean Waters Watercraft Inspectors and Citizen Lakes Monitoring Network Volunteers, for their extraordinary efforts to protect our lands and waterbodies in Oneida County!

Agenda

- 5:00 Check In and Social Hour
- 5:45 Welcome and Introduction:
Stephanie Boismenu, AIS Coordinator
- Official Greeting:
Jim Winkler, Chairman, Conservation/UW-EX
Education Committee
- 6:00 Dinner and Table Conversation
- 7:00 Guest Speakers:
Madeline Hetland and Sabrina Becker,
Oneida County Land & Water Conservation
Protecting Oneida County's Water Resources
- JoAnne Lund, Special Projects Coordinator,
Oneida County Land & Water
Introduction to Mussel Monitoring
- 7:45 Award Presentations
- 8:20 Door Prizes
- 8:50 Closing and Thank You

Congratulations Award Winners

Citizen Lake Monitoring Network Awards

Congratulations to the Oneida County Citizen Lake Monitoring Network long-term volunteers who have completed 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30 or more years for collecting water quality data on Oneida County waters and sharing information with fellow lake residents, the DNR, UW biologists, and researchers.

5-Year: Amanda Glebs, Lake Seventeen
Michael Mader, Meta Lake
Marie Margitan, Hill Lake
Buck Meyers, Blue Lake
Cathy and Dave Olig

10-Year: Ken Zator, Maple Lake
Lynn Zibell, Virgin Lake
Debbie Westphal, Tom Doyle Lake
Alan Schwoegler, West Horsehad Lake

15-Year: Mark Noesges, Hasbrook Lake
Paul Swanson, Hasbrook Lake
Pam McVety, George Lake

30-Year: Allen & Rosemary Toussaint, Alva Lake
Together, they have recorded nearly 500 water quality readings and nearly 200 water chemistry samples on Alva Lake.

Stewardship Awards

Stewardship Awards celebrate the extraordinary volunteer and professional efforts to protect and improve health of our lands and waterbodies in Oneida County.

Exceptional Longevity and Leadership Stewardship Award

Jim Gehrke, Crescent Lake

Exceptional Stewardship Recognition Award

Joe Steinhage, Two Sisters Lake

Exceptional Stewardship Recognition Award

Ted Rulseh, Birch Lake

Exceptional Volunteer Leadership Stewardship Award

Lynn Zibell, Three Lakes Chain

Outstanding Environmental Stewardship Award

Paul Matthiae, Three Lakes Chain

Exceptional Stewardship Recognition Award

Oneida County Lakes & Rivers Association

Lifetime Stewardship Award

Sandy Wickman, Regional Coordinator, Citizen Lake Monitoring Network

Exceptional Volunteer and Stewardship Recognition Award

Andrea Billings, Volunteer, Oneida County Land & Water

Exceptional Aquatic & Stewardship Recognition Award

Jacques Tulowitzky, Watercraft Inspector, Oneida County Land & Water

“Bat Ass Volunteer” and Stewardship Award

Marcia Obukowicz, Volunteer, Oneida County Land & Water